Dear Pierre,

Welcome! I trust you have all survived the Valentine's weekend and have correctly navigated the dangerous emotional billabongs that appear from nowhere at this time of the year. I hope you enjoy the newsletter, comments and suggestions are welcomed.

Drovers Membership

We have presently 5 members which are Alex, Pierre, Lynne, Tony and Wenzel and one honorary member - Johnny. Your Golf Shirts have been ordered

I have ordered our members

Golf Shirts and they should arrive this Friday. They are apparently a very good quality LaCoste type and the logo is on the sleeve. The cost is R 180.00 each. Let me know how many and what sizes you would like. I have avoided a slogan or payline as this may limit where and when you can wear the shirt but thought that we may get a bit more creative with a cap. Please let me have your comments on this.

The Aussies are on their way

PHILLIP HUGHES will arrive at Sydney Airport this morning for the start of the rest of his life. He will check in the bags carrying the bats that have brought him this far. He will receive his boarding pass, mingle with the elite players he's only just starting to rub shoulders with and then board a 14-hour flight to Johannesburg. Once there, he will board the Australian team bus for the 120-kilometre drive to Potchefstroom for a three-day practice game against a South African XI from Friday. It will be Hughes's first appearance for Australia.

Please remember to visit our blog at <http://www.drovers.typepad.com>.

Sincerely,

Pierre Hefer
for the DROVERS
